

Lisa Fish

Instructional Technology • Digital Media • Literacy

 Colorado Springs, CO

 <http://techyfishgirl.com>

 719.201.2925

 pinkywish8438@gmail.com

I love telling stories with multimedia and want to help others express themselves too. I am an Information Learning Technology graduate student at the University of Colorado Denver, English teacher, and media specialist. My heart is to inspire kids to learn and grow in the use of technology in healthy and exciting ways, and to help teachers find fresh, creative ideas to align technology with curriculum in their classroom.

SOFTWARE

WordPress

Canvas LMS

SEO, Web 2.0 / Social Media

MS Suite

iLife (GarageBand, iMovie, iPhoto)

Google Apps

Zoom / Skype / Google Hangout

HootSuite, Voicethread, Hypothes.is

GIMP / Canva / ThingLink

Adobe Creative Suite

Audacity / SoundCloud

Explain Everything/Prezi

GoAnimate/Animoto/Flowvella

SKILLS

Online / Blended Learning

Curriculum Design

Blogging / Social Media

Digital Video / Multimedia

Transmedia Design

Innovation and Classroom

Technology

Podcasting / Animations

ACADEMIC

University of Colorado – Denver, CO

Master of Arts Information & Learning Technologies, K-12, Endorsement Instructional Technology Specialist, K-12

California State University – Fullerton, CA

Educational Technology- Postgraduate education credits for professional credentialing

Biola University – La Mirada, CA

Bachelor of Arts, English and Education

Professional Experience

Skyview Middle School – Colorado Springs, CO

Media Specialist, August 2015-16

- Manager of the school library on a day-to-day basis with the primary focus of meeting the needs of staff and students, encouraging learning through reading and technological methods.
- Support and collaborate with staff on research, recommend and implement instructional technologies to enhance online learning experiences and media use.

Pinky Wish Press Publishing – Monument, CO

Writer and CEO of small publishing company, 2011-present

- Focus on children's fiction and non-fiction with educational content. Current projects involve novel and ELD curriculum.
- Worked with a team of editors, formatters, and digital artists to produce and publish a 74,000 word children's novel.
- Next: Go Digital with storytelling!

HONORS

Howard and Mamie Nichols
Academic Fellowship

Bank of America Award of Achievement in Foreign Languages

The Business and Professional
Women's Award of Achievement

COMMUNITY

Library volunteer: Concierge and Repair Room Tech.

Kern Environmental Education
Program Teacher and Counselor

The Springs Rescue Mission
Special Events Volunteer

YMCA Pre-school Teacher

Rotary Club

PARTNERS

Mary's Home – Shelter for single mothers and their children

Dream Centers – Rebuilding lives
by providing medical care to people in Colorado

Eagle Lake Camps – Summer camp
for kids in Pike National Forest

iREACH Africa – Program that provides milk and baby supplies to central African families

High Country Academy – Colorado Springs, Colorado

Coach, Administrator and Teacher, 2002-2011

- Leadership role for enrichment program serving over four hundred families, partnering with them to educate their children.
- Provide support, assistance, and training for a team of teachers, prepare and file class paperwork adhering to Colorado State standards and objectives.
- Work with teachers, administrators and families to provide clear direction, implementing class standards and discipline, develop lesson plans, create and implement lesson plans

Chino, Yorba Linda, and Whittier School Districts - California

Substitute Teacher, 1994-1997

- Stepped into teaching for friends and colleagues on an "as needed" basis for various semesters around the raising of my children.

Topaz Elementary – Yorba Linda, California

Elementary Teacher, 2nd Grade, 1992-1993

- Worked with children from diverse backgrounds, including economically challenged and immigrants with little formal linguistic training in English.
- Utilize multi-sensory, phonetic structured teaching methodology with a focus on building reading and writing skills.
- Use innovative methods and materials to develop math skills via kinesthetic, auditory, and color manipulation for increased memory retention.

Granada Middle School – Whittier, California

Middle School Language Arts Teacher, 6-7th, 1989-1992

- Trained to implement the Writer's and Reader's workshop curriculum by Lucy Calkins.
- Team leader school self-improvement committee E.S.L. representative. Development of adaptive curriculum for literature units to be used district-wide.
- Developed a wide variety of learning experiences to grow readers and writers. Incorporated brain puzzles, art, Editor in Chief games, Excellence in Writing activities, grammar challenges, organizers and more.